Beware of IRS Scams

A friendly reminder as tax season approaches to be on the lookout for IRS-related scams. Protect yourself and your account from fraudulent activity by reviewing these tips below.

- The IRS will never call, text, or email asking for personal information
- They won't demand immediate payment or threaten arrest
- Unexpected refund messages are often scams

If you receive a suspicious message, don't click links or share details. Instead, contact us directly so we can monitor your account closely.
